Job description: Member of the AO CMF Education Commission

AO CMF searches: A highly motivated individual of regional repute and excellent scientific and clinical recognition. The successful applicant will be a member of the AO CMF Education Commission and contribute to all its activities. The applicant must be able to work in a multi-cultural environment with no travel restrictions. The successful candidate is expected to have the vision to contribute to AO CMF, and to help set new standards to position AO CMF as a global leader in craniomaxillofacial surgery education and research.

Position Member of the AO CMF Education Commission

Territory Latin America

Reporting to Chair AOCMF Education Commission

Term Three years

Start date July 2020

End date June 2023

Requirements The applicant must:

- Be an active AO CMF faculty member; preferably holding a position at a university or academic institution
- Be an active clinical practitioner in CMF trauma surgery
- Possess demonstrated experience in medical education
- Be highly motivated to contribute to the development of new AO CMF educational offerings and quality approved curricula
- Act as an advisor for education matters to the AO CMF Latin America Board
- Have national and regional networks and strong interpersonal relationships
- Have attended AO Faculty Development Programs (Faculty Education Program "FEP" and Chairperson Education Program "CEP")
- Be able and willing to work in an ecumenical, constructive and inclusive way with surgeons of different surgical backgrounds, including but not limited to Oral & Maxillofacial Surgeons, Plastic Surgeons, Otolaryngologists, Head & Neck Surgeons, Ophthalmology and Oculoplastic Surgeons, and Neurosurgeons
- Be willing and prepared to travel internationally (no exclusions)
- Be a good and clear communicator, good listener, possess the ability to work in multi-cultural environments
- Possess a very good command of the English language
• Be prepared to commit adequate time (on an average, one day per month) to AO CMF / AO Foundation affairs

In addition, she/he:

• Should have international experience (eg. fellowship, faculty, or research travel)
• Should be a recognized member or officer on key national, regional, or international CMF associations
• Should be recognized as excellent educator
• Should have a good scientific reputation, supported by relevant research experience and high-quality academic publications.

Responsibilities

The member of the AO CMF Education Commission will contribute to:

• Identifying future opportunities of education considering national, regional and worldwide educational needs in the field of craniomaxillofacial surgery
• Suggesting & developing new competency-based curricula
• Collaborating with AO CMF regional boards, the Technical Commission, Research & Development and Community Development, to ensure the smooth implementation of cross-departmental projects
• Proposing medical education research strategies
• Analyzing data from educational events to propose further developments
• Networking with clinical divisions’ educational commissions
• Continuing the development of the Management of Facial Trauma curriculum
• Defining topics, and the peer review process for online educational events
• Acting in compliance with the bylaws and regulations of the AO Foundation
• Complying to the AO Foundation Code of Ethics and Shared Values
• Accepting and fulfilling the AO CMF Education Commission’s tasks
• Participating and contributing to efficient and effective AO CMF Education Commission meetings
• Preparing all necessary contributions and documentations connected therewith